PER ROOM

Melfort House is a magnificent family home and country house nestled at the head of Loch Melfort offering bed, breakfast and dinner for those who would like it. Less than 3 hours from Glasgow, Edinburgh, Perth and Stirling this is a world far removed from today's hustle and bustle. This is Argyll at its finest. The scenery and tranquility is unrivalled.

Legends abound - gone are the days of gunpowder factories and the herring but their great legacy remains... Relax in front of our roaring log fire, enjoy a dram and hear all about it. We promise you an unforgettable stay in one of the most beautiful land and seascapes that Great Britain has to offer.

ROOMS:

Imagine arriving at Melfort House after a breathtaking day in the beautiful Argyllshire countryside - be it a stroll along the shores of Loch Melfort, a 10 mile hike over the Braes of Lorne or a gentle meander through the coastal villages and towns.

Why not arrive in time to have complimentary afternoon tea in our comfortable drawing room. Sink into deep sofas by our large log fire amidst family pictures and quirky antiques and take in the views whilst savouring in home made scones and cakes.

Take some time to read, play backgammon or simply watch the passing sailboats.

Our luxurious guest bedrooms have been finished with your total comfort and relaxation in mind. All are ensuite with tea and coffee, hairdryer, heated towel rails, LCD TV's with DVD player.

EATING:

Breakfast

In the mornings you will be enticed down to breakfast with such delicacies as local free range eggs, bacon, Stormoway black pudding, home made tattie scones, kedgerree, chilli omelettes and fruits that are in season. All served in our elegant dining room looking south over Loch Melfort to Shuna, Scarba and Jura beyond.

Dinner

We would be delighted to provide you with a sumptuous three course dinner. As the finest local produce is used, we ask for 24 hours notice of dinner booking including any special dietary requirements. For a sample menu and pricing, please see our website

FIND US:

Melfort House is nestled in a quiet corner of Argyll on Scotland's legendary west coast only 15 miles south of Oban.

We can be found on the shores of Loch Melfort, just over a mile from the A816 Oban to Lochgilphead road.

Leave the A816 at the village of Kilmelford and turn west following the sign for Melfort 1¼ miles. Immediately after the stone bridge turn right through stone pillars bear left into our drive.

Edinburgh and Glasgow airports are both within three hours and the nearest train station is in Oban.

Oban is also the main ferry terminal for many Scottish islands including Mull, Iona, Coll, Tiree and Colonsay.
